

Hear the Stories

Dial in and hear the subjects in the portraits talk about their experiences with the Kodiak King Crab fishery.

- To access the tour, dial (206) 686-8562.
- When prompted, enter an item number followed by the # (pound) key. Item numbers corresponding to individuals can be found on the reverse side of this sheet, and on wall labels at the museum.
- Visitors have the option of staying connected through the entire tour or hanging up and calling back later. When you are finished with one story, simply enter a new number followed by the # (pound) key to hear another.
- Tell us what you think! To leave a comment, press 0 followed by the # (pound key).

The audio tour is FREE, except for the use of your cell phone minutes. Technology provided by Guide by Cell.

Oral histories were recorded by Maggie Wall and produced as part of the Kodiak Maritime Museum's When Crab was King Oral History project, 2008 - 2011.
